

We should all stand firm on the do not call list. It was a great idea. I don't want the telemarketers to call my home for any reason. I think that it is bad enough with all the JUNK mail that we receive, that we can't control that. Please don't let them start bothering us again.